

Stay-Enrolled Action Plan

Identify the barrier, protect your enrollment, and build a support team.

MADE FOR

Any student considering stopping out or withdrawing

Use this toolkit as a planning guide. Requirements, deadlines, and availability are set by each school, scholarship, agency, or provider. EFF cannot guarantee funding or outside assistance.

Name the pressure point

- Tuition balance or financial aid
- Food or housing
- Transportation or childcare
- Academic standing or course load
- Physical or mental health
- Belonging, safety, or family responsibility
- Work schedule or lost income

The problem, deadline, and consequence if nothing changes

Build your three-person team

Role	Name / office / contact
College decision-maker
Trusted support person
Community resource navigator
Follow-up date

Possible college contacts: financial aid, student accounts, dean of students, academic advisor, counseling, disability services, basic-needs center, or housing.

Before changing enrollment

- Ask how withdrawal affects current and future aid
- Ask about satisfactory academic progress and appeal rights
- Confirm the final balance and refund consequences

- Ask about incomplete grades, reduced load, leave, or emergency options
- Get answers in writing and save copies
- Create a return plan if stopping out becomes necessary

CRISIS SUPPORT

Immediate danger: call 911. Mental-health crisis: call or text 988. Local essentials: dial 211.
